'I'M SURE LOTS OF BABIES WILL BE MADE'

RICHARD BRANSON IS EXCITED ABOUT WELCOMING GUESTS TO HIS RECENTLY REOPENED GUESTHOUSE IN THE BRITISH VIRGIN ISLANDS

Bachelor Tim's foreign affair

The Bachelor hunk Tim Robards is set to hand out his last rose on the season finale tonight, but Confidential can reveal that a local lass already caught his eye some time ago. Channel 7's Gold Coast girl Amanda Abate enjoyed a holiday romance with the sexy chiropractor when they hooked up in Venice last year.

"He was an Aussie, I was an Aussie..." she explained.

"We caught up once when we got back but it was a short-lived thing."

Despite the briefness of the encounter, Robards obviously made an impression, with Abate recently posting a photo of a romantic gondola ride on her Facebook account (right).

Robards, however, was less forthcoming about the Latin liaison. "I won't go into the details of any of that but there was a 'friendship,'" he said.

HOLLYWOOD'S CREAM OF THE CROP

IT'S cute, flirty, and guaranteed to turn heads. No wonder the pixie cut is taking Hollywood by storm.

Pamela Anderson, Jennifer Hudson, Charlize Theron (pictured) and now Glee's Kristin Chenoweth have all gone for the chop — inspiring Brisbane women to do the same.

Salon Vogue Nationale's senior stylist Sarah-Jane Van Daalen said the pixie cut was a great confidence booster. "It's playful and fun. Women can't hide behind their hair when it's cut like this," she said. "It's best to keep it soft around the face and textured."

ICE QUEEN DRESSED TO COOL
Australian women's ice hockey team member Tiffany Venning found a suitable spot to model a new piece by Carla Zampatti yesterday. The local designer's new winter collection will be showcased at the Treasury Hotel's Identity fashion parade on Friday night.

SALON, GOODBYE TO LAYLA'S FREE TIME

LAYLA Subritzky could soon rival Stefan as Queensland's most successful beauty mogul.

The Gold Coast girl (pictured) is quietly building up a mini empire after opening the doors of her first ever Australian salon, Layla's, at Emerald Lakes on the Gold Coast.

She also has a Sydney location in her sights by January and a Melbourne store by the end of next year.

"I'm going to have to accept that I won't have a life next year," she laughed.

But she's found time to help raise awareness Australian Cervical Cancer Foundation's Be Bright campaign.

Layla will be in the Queen St Mall today to encourage the public to contribute important funds for research and prevention.
